ES, I was sitting here watching t.v. and reading Local Chaos when I noticed that theres not much mention of locals ripping the street. So whats up? I've seen guys downtown shredding benches, curbs, WALLS and sidewalks and anything else thats skatable or not. All I'm saying is that I would like to see more street shit in your mag. We'll whatever See you on the streets I guess.

CHAOS PLAZA SKATE

PLAZA Rips! Ive Known it for A Few Years NOW. My VERY First sessions WERE at the "PLAZA". A Lot of others HAVE started at the plaza.

LIBERTY PLAZA IS A SMALL DESIGNER CITY PARK. IT CONTAINS. BENCHES, WALLS of ASSORTED Heights, AND AT ANY GIVEN time A BUNCH of SKATERS. So one DAY we DECIDED to HAVE A JAM. "CHAOS PLAZA SKATE" was the NAME of the event I Guess.

BIG TIME FUN WAS TONY CUSTODIOS 'MEGA AIR BLAST, OR MAYBE MLB's OBNOXIOUS SLIDES, OR Jeff MARTIN'S OLLIE MAGIC, OR WELL YOU KNOW.

WE SKATED MOST OF THE DAY. THEN SOME PEOPLE PULLED UP IN A TRUCK. IT WAS BILL FERGUSON AND O.P. MOORE. BOTH E.S. LOCALS. THEY HAD COME TO GET THE HALF-PIPE RAMP. I GUESS BILL BOUGHT IT. O.P. SAID MAYBE THIS ONE DUDE MIGHT TRY TO REOPEN IT. BUT WHO KNOWS! WE PRETTY MUCH CALLED IT A DAY AT ENDLESS SUMMER.

STILL MORE →

We had been skating for about 7 hours. Our next stop was at WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY campus. MLB. ran across this cool piece of art to ride. It was great!! A session there turned into several sessions before we left the campus. After a general all around campus rip (no, the fountain was filled) we decided to head on home to Ann Arbor. After a quick stop at a neighborhood party store we hit the highway. No sooner then we got on the highway it started raining. Skate gods let us slide once again.

Editor Wes jams the banked freestyle area above with a two-wheel slide and that way → doing boneless ones with MLB.

Oh yea! Did I say final chapter? WRONG! Chaos skaterz are going to E.S. all the time. But a bust is always present. Just ask Flips and MLB.

SESSIONS? ADAM'S

HIS RAMP IS THE SMOOOTHEST INTOWN! RAMP.
